

September 23, 1965

Mrs. Horace Perkins

Funeral services for Mrs. Horace (Elsie Emma) Perkins, Claremont, were held Tuesday, Sept. 14, 1965, at 2 p. m. at the Methodist Church with the Rev. Preston Brown, officiating. Manley Green was soloist and a quartet, Mrs. Keith Cutler, Mrs. Jesse Alberts, Rodney Barnes and Ronald Odland, also sang. Mrs. George Pier-son presided at the organ.

Pall bearers were Winston Feser, Bert Gibbs, George Schuller, Vern Swanson, John Pulfrey and Emil Lar-son. Burial was in the Hecla ceme-tery.

Elsie Emma Stangor Perkins was born January 13, 1899 in Danube, Minn. She died Sept. 11, 1965 at Brit-ton hospital. She attended public schools in Renville, Minn. In 1918 she came to the prairies of South Dakota to teach in the Claremont and Am-herst communities.

She was united in marriage to Hor-ace T. Perkins, Nov. 27, 1920. Three children were born to this union: James W., Hopkins, Minn.; Arduth J., Van Nuys, Calif., and Owen, Aber-deen.

Mrs. Perkins had been active in the Claremont community in many ways. She was a member of the Eastern Star, the Womens Society of Christian Service and the First Methodist Church, Claremont. She was key wo-man for North Brown County United Church Women.

Survivors include her husband re-siding at Claremont; her children, seven grandchildren and two broth-ers, Albert and Ernest Stangor.